Tailored Suits 2 Numbers

The fall season in tailored suits, so far, has shown a remarkable activity. The two numbers at a nominal price advertised Wednesday were received by our customers with enthusiasm. Next week two other numbers are offered that are even more attractive. They are tailored suits in rough chevrons, mixtures and tweeds. The new shades of gray, brown, tan and green are shown, together with the always fashionable navy blues and blacks. The coats of these suits come in lengths of 28 to 32 inches and are lined with a superior quality of satin. Most of the skirts show the "hobble" effect modified to make a practical garment. These two special numbers come in sizes for women and misses—prices are

$18.50 & $23.50

NOTE—In addition to the above suits at a nominal price, we dwell on the fact that you will find here next week an unrivaled selection in every novelty and accepted suit style of the season in medium priced and the most expensive garments.

Accessories

Smart new accessories! A volume could be written about them. Each season brings out a host of new trifles to increase a woman's charm, but this fall the showing is remarkable in its extent and beauty. We mention particularly the prevalence of Persian designs. We also call your attention to the new Parisian scarfs—the beautiful fad that Paris inaugurated—and American women are gladly accepting. We mention also the fall styles in "Kaiser" neckwear. Come and see all these beautiful accessories for yourself—it is impossible to describe them.

On account of Labor Day we will close Monday at noon. Shop Monday morning.

Watches

WHEN you buy a watch your only safeguard is in the character of the house from whom you buy. The mere appearance of a watch is no guide, since thinly plated cases may be made to shine like solid gold and may later be marked "14 karat."

Nor is the name on a watch a complete protection to a buyer. Waltham designates the make of a movement, not its quality, for a Waltham movement may come anywhere from $4.00 to $70.00.

Our watch department is the product of 22 years of work and study.

Experience has taught the public to believe in us, to understand that the Hixson guarantee is more than a formality. Every watch we offer for sale, even the most inexpensive, is the best of its kind, and has been examined by an expert for faults.
